Graduate Application Information

Applying to the French Graduate Program

What follows are requirements, and downloadable information/application materials for Graduate Programs in French Studies at the University of Washington.

Please e-mail Sabrina Tatta, sabri@uw.edu, if you have any further questions after having read the material.

- Department Requirements for Admission to the Graduate Program
- Financial Assistance

Department Requirements for Admission to the French Graduate Program

Applications for Autumn Quarter 2021 are due by December 18th, 2020. Applicants who submit all required materials to the Department of French and Italian Studies by December 18th, 2020 will be included in the initial selection process and thus will be given full consideration for funding in the form of Teaching or Research Assistantships.

For international applicants: suggested deadline is November 3, 2020, in order to allow ample time for document processing. Please contact us if you have missed the November 1 deadline but would still like to apply. The TOEFL & TSE or TOEFLibt is required of all international applicants and permanent resident applicants who do not hold a degree from a U.S. or other English-speaking institution in accepted countries (Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, or the United Kingdom). TOEFL scores are valid for two years and must be sent directly to the University of Washington (school code 4854). Include a photocopy of the score report in your application packet that you send to the Department of French & Italian Studies. For more information about this exam, contact TOEFL/ETS Services at toefl@ets.org or call 877.863.3546. For registration information and testing locations, call 800.468.6335 or visit the TOEFL web site.

International students should take their TOEFL and TSE (or TOEFLibt) by December 18th, 2020 in order for the UW to ensure score availability by the time application decisions are made. TAships and RAships include a tuition waiver as well as health insurance.

Applicants for admission to graduate study of French or Italian at the University of Washington must provide the following to the Department of French and Italian Studies, via the Graduate School’s online application:

1. Application for Graduate Admission, along with supporting documents.
2. Letter of Intent
3. Writing sample
4. Three Letters of Recommendation
5. Digital sound file of applicant speaking in target language (French) Please provide a recording (.m4a, .mp3, .wav, or .wma) of you reading a text of your choosing in French. If you wish, you may read from the writing sample you are submitting with your application. Include a spoken introduction in English of the text that you will read. Your reading should be no more than three minutes and your introduction no more than one minute.

6. GRE scores sent by ETS (institution code 4854). International students may petition to waive this requirement if applying from a University outside the United States.

7. Applicants whose native language is not English must demonstrate English language proficiency as outlined in Memo 8: Graduate School English Language Proficiency Requirements. Such students who wish to be appointed as teaching assistants (TAs) must meet the conditions for appointment specified in Memo 15: Conditions of Appointment for TAs who are not Native Speakers of English.

Teaching Assistantships

When applying for graduate study to the Department of French & Italian Studies please indicate if you are interested in being considered for a Teaching Assistantship. Please see the Teaching Assistantship application form for detailed instructions on how to apply. Please see the description of the Teaching Assistantship position below.

Teaching Assistantship Position (PDF)

Graduate students in other departments may apply for Teaching Assistantships in French and Italian Studies.

Department of French & Italian Studies
University of Washington
c-254 Padelford Hall
Box 354361
Seattle, WA 98195-4361

Phone: (206) 616-3486
Fax: (206) 616-3302
defital@uw.edu

Source URL: https://frenchitalian.washington.edu/graduate-application-information