Graduate World Language Exams

Graduate World Language Exams (GWLEs) in French and Italian

The Graduate World Language Exams (GWLEs) in French and Italian are administered by the Office of Educational Assessment Testing Center in 440 Schmitz Hall. This exam is for graduate students from outside departments who need to demonstrate proficiency in French or Italian in order to earn their degree. The exam costs $50, last for 2 hours, and consist of multiple choice questions with no listening section.

Learn more and schedule a Graduate World Language Exam here.

Department of French & Italian Studies
University of Washington
c-254 Padelford Hall
Box 354361
Seattle, WA 98195-4361

Phone: (206) 616-3486
Fax: (206) 616-3302
frenital@uw.edu

Source URL: https://frenchitalian.washington.edu/graduate-world-language-exams