Minor in Italian Language & Culture

Requirements for Italian Language & Culture Minor

- Italian Language & Culture Minor Requirements, effective Winter 2020
- Italian Language & Culture Minor Requirements, effective Autumn 2018
- Italian Minor Requirements, effective Autumn 2015
- Italian Major/Minor Requirements, Autumn 2013-2014

Courses

- 15 credits from ITAL 201, ITAL 202, ITAL 203

- 5 credits from ITAL 301

- 5 credits from ITAL 351, 352, 353, 354, 355, 356, or 357, which must be taken concurrently with the ITAL 380 (1 credit Discussion Course)

- 5 credits of electives (see adviser for approved list of electives)

- Minimum 2.00 cumulative GPA for courses applied to the minor

- Maximum 10 credits of approved study-abroad coursework may be petitioned to apply to the minor.

Please Note:

- ITAL 201, 202, 203, and 301 must be taken in sequence.

- When Italian Language & Culture minors register for an ITAL 350 level course they must also register for ITAL 380 Italian Culture Seminar, which is a discussion course taught in Italian that meets for one hour per week. The prerequisite for ITAL 380 is ITAL 203.

Students can declare a minor with the adviser in their major department. Please contact the Humanities Academic Services Center (HAS) at has-center@uw.edu with any other questions about the Italian minor.

Department of French & Italian Studies
University of Washington
c-254 Padelford Hall
Box 354361
Seattle, WA 98195-4361

Phone: (206) 616-3486
Fax: (206) 616-3302
frenital@uw.edu