Undergraduate Studies in Italian

Please consult the Humanities Academic Services Advisor, Sabrina Tatta (has-center@uw.edu), if interested in the Italian minor. Please note at this time we are not able to offer the upper level courses for the Italian major. Therefore we are not able to accept new students into the Italian major. Non-majors in Italian Studies, please view the advising section of our website for information on registration.

- Why Study Italian?
- Major Requirements
- Minor Requirements
- Honors Program

Students are encouraged to study abroad on one of our programs in Italy! Study abroad credits earned on UW programs are considered UW credits rather than transfer credits. Learn about study abroad opportunities.

Information about advising, internships, career planning, and scholarships is available in the Resources section.

Department of French & Italian Studies
University of Washington
c-254 Padelford Hall
Box 354361
Seattle, WA 98195-4361

Phone: (206) 616-3486
Fax: (206) 616-3302
frenital@uw.edu

Source URL: https://frenchitalian.washington.edu/undergraduate-studies-italian